Karen: Uhhh...Why in the world are you doing all that tweeting instead of working on the book proposal?
me: that tweeting took me five minutes total me: I also had some cookies and read a magazine me: and I wouldn't have the book proposal if I hadn't done a bunch of other stuff you bugged about, remember?
Karen: OK well I'm glad to hear about the cookies and the magazine :)
me: good to hear, adios
